“ Bob and Ruth were my godparents. I really didn't get to know them until they moved back to Toledo from Phoenix. They both had such delightful senses of humor. I always loved getting hugs from them when I'd see them out for dinner at Bob Evan's. I just can't believe that they are both gone. But they certainly are rejoicing in heaven with each other now! To all of their nieces and nephews, you are in my thoughts and prayers! ”
