“ Dear David and family, our deepest condolences to you at the loss of your father so close to the loss of your mother. We had the opportunity to have your father drive us to the DTW airport last year and we're so impressed when he also brought us back home 4 weeks later. We hope for your continued service to our Holy Trinity Cathedral. Ursula and Dimitri Xanthakos

“ We are saddened by another great loss to the Mynihan Family and to our church community. Bob, though a man of few words, made his words count and his impact felt. May his memory be eternal.
