“ I have many fond memories of school trips that either Ron or Sylvia escorted. He was always so patient and kind to our students. He was like a grandfather to all of them. I will always remember his warm smile, pleasant personality, and sense of humor. He truly was a gentleman and will be missed by his many friends and family members. My deepest sympathy to Sylvia, children and grandfather on your loss. May God's comforting spirit surround your family during this difficult time.
