

Rosamond C. Wisebaker

February 24, 1925 - February 27, 2010

Rosamond C. Wisebaker, 85, of Kingston Manor, Sylvania, OH, passed into eternal life on Saturday, February 27, 2010, in her home. She was born on February, 24, 1925, in Providence, RI, to Edward J. and Marian C. Drew. Rosamond married Merle E. Wisebaker on October 19, 1946, in Providence, RI. She worked at Miracle Mile Plaza and retired from Churchill's Super Market, where she worked for many years. She was a member of Sylvania Senior Center and enjoyed reading and collecting figurines. Rosamond also enjoyed her loving cats, dinning out, and shopping. She loved being around family and friends. She will lovingly be remembered by all her family and friends. Rosamond is survived by her children; Judy LaVoy, Sandra (Tom Vantol) Wisebaker, M.D., Mary Wisebaker Lydon, and Terry (Judy) Wisebaker; grandchildren; April Tucker, Mindi Keifer, Tim Lydon, Thomas Lydon, Scott Lydon, Aaron Lydon, and Madison Vantol and nine great-grandchildren. Rosamond was preceded in death by her loving husband, Merle E. Wisebaker. Friends are invited to visit from 1-7 p.m., on Sunday, in the Ansberg-West Funeral Home, 3000 Sylvania Avenue, where funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Monday. Reverend Tony Vera will officiate. Interment will be in Ottawa Hills Memorial Park. Memorial contributions may be made to the Toledo Humane Society. The Wisebaker family wishes to thank Hospice of Northwest Ohio, in Toledo, for the loving care of their mother.
