“ Well Rose honey we are going to try this again. Well your with Chief now. I want to thank for all the wonderful memories that I have of the time I spent with your family. You opened your door for me and better than that set a place for me at the dinner table! Lord knows and so do I you could cook!! Even after so much time had past sitting at the kitchen table sharing some soup felt so natural like nothing had changed. I LOVE YOU and always have a place in my heart for you and Chief!

“ Sandy & Jeff: So sorry to hear about your mom's passing. I know you always made sure she lived the best life she could, with her chronic health limitations. We hope she is at peace now and there will be a day soon that wonderful memories of her life will replace the loss you feel today. Reba & Tim Sarver
