

Roy M. Perkins

June 10, 1927 - September 28, 2014

Roy Perkins, 87, of Lambertville, Michigan, passed away September 28, 2014 with his loving wife and daughter by his side. He was born June 10, 1927, in Kentucky, to Joseph and America Perkins, who preceded him in death. Roy serviced honorably in the Navy, during World War II, and received The World War Victory Ribbon and the Asiatic Pacific Area Ribbon. Roy was known as an honest and generous man. His mantra to his children was, "There is no one worse than a liar and a thief."

He worked hard his entire career as manufacturing engineer and a toolmaker at Teledyne and then at Chrysler. He enjoyed making his own tools and creatively troubleshooting problems with the machines. He loved reading, playing bollards, and working in his yard with his cat at his side.

Roy is survived by his devoted wife, Linda Perkins, daughter Kelli (Todd) Mewborn; grandchildren; Dustin (Nicole) Perkins, Chanel (Chris) Simpkins, Shayton Perkins, Shanda (David Jones) Perkins and Jacob Mewborn; great-grandchildren, Zander, Ketih, Lance, Serenity, Layne, Vladimir, Natalie and Mila. He is also survived by his siblings, Otis Perkins, Fay Egnor, Joseph Jr. Perkins, Phyllis Pitcock, Martina Donehoo and Rose Lee Hadley. Roy was preceded in death by his sons, Keith and Craig and his siblings, Lotus Perry and Haskell Perkins.

There will be no funeral services according to Roy's wishes. Ansberg-West Funeral Directors (419)472-7633. Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.ansberg-west.com

“ Dear Kelli and Linda...
So sorry to hear of Roy's passing. A lot of amazing memories in the Pekins' household growing through our teenage years. You're in my thoughts and prayers.

“ To Kelli, I know you meant the world to Roy and he meant the world to you. He was a terrific dad - always looking out for his girl. Your dad was a wonderful husband and father. Fortunately, you have a boatload of memories that will last forever. May he rest in peace. Peace to you, your mom, and your family. Love, Beth
