“ my precious cousins, & your familiesaunt sally's memorial service was just what she would have loved;thoughtful, beautiful and very "from the heart". I love that she is wearing her pearls, as one of mama's favorite stories about her was when her pearl necklace broke , and all the boys scampered to get them for her~mama said the guys LOVED her...lucky dog, uncle dick! I adore my straw hat, and it hangs appropriately on the other side of the long mirror (mama's) from my straw cowgirl hat. I will touch it often (and wear it), as do i her ceramic gifts, and slippers she gave me. i will talk to her lots, as i do with my other favorites who have passed on. God bless you my sweetpea aunt sally,and your family (both here & up there), i know you'll keep in touch with us all. i'll think of you when i see cardinals, hats, ceramics and so many other things~yes, you were an artist! her obituary is lovely, and all you girls did a beautiful tribute to your mama....it was so cool to see you all :) love, mis & craig

“ My sincere condolences to your family during this time of sorrow. The Bible says that "In themselves the days of our years are seventy years; and if because of special mightiness they are eighty years." May the God of all comfort soothe the pain in your hearts with his promise of a future resurrection.--John 5:28, 29

“ Sally was a true joy and we so enjoyed the time we spent with her. She raised a beautiful family, one with much love, warmth, kindness, and grace. Our prayers are with you as you grieve. One day soon we'll all be together in God's presence -- keep clinging to that promise, that joy, and that hope. Much love to you all! Love, The Presslers W. Lafayette, IN
