“ To the Wasserman Sisters:
Saddened to hear of the passing of Sarah. I always enjoyed being in her company. She would accuse me of talking fast, but I always told her I was just trying to keep up with her! I remember the times I came to your house, your mother was very welcoming and so was your father, in a quieter way. Poor man—being outnumbered by so many females!
You are in my thoughts and prayers.

Ellen and Brian, I was a friend of your Dad's before he married your Mom. Last year I was walking near where I now live and your Mother recognized me and sent a note to me. I called and we visited on the phone and she told me of her illness and of all the accomplishments that you two have achieved. She was so proud of you! Last week I was walking by the house again and thought of her and wondered about her health. I was surprised to read the obituary. You are in my prayers and thoughts. Sr. Virginia Welsh
