

Sharon Ann Barnhart

June 18, 1957 - June 18, 2020

Sharon Ann Barnhart, 63, of Maumee, passed away June 18, 2020, at her home. She was born June 18, 1957, in Toledo and was the daughter of David and Marilyn Sweeney.

Sharon was a graduate of Whitmer High School. She was the manager of the Walking Company at Falling Timbers from 2007- 2020. Her hobbies include gardening and taking her beloved fluffy friend, Sasha on car rides and walks. Sharon was a wonderful person with a heart of gold. She had a very positive and upbeat personality. She was always the calm in the storm.

Sharon is survived by her children, Matthew (Joy) Hoddinott, Alison (Sam) Burton, Timothy (Amie Cousino) Hoddinott and Robert (Tricia) Barnhart; grandchildren, Hailey, Kelsey, Anastacia, Luke, Clara, Victoria, Crystal and Marissa; mother, Marilyn Sweeney; sister, Susan Hall; sister-in law, Addie (Kelly) Wilson; niece, Tracy (Michael) Schweizer; nephew, Derek (Heather) Hall and her Walking Company Family. She was preceded in death by her father, David Sweeney and husband, Daniel Barnhart.

Family and friends are invited to gather on Monday, June 29th, from 2-8 p.m., at the Ansberg-West Funeral Home. Contributions may be made in Sharon's memory to the Cuties Fund at Lucas County Canine Care and Control, 410 South Erie Street, Toledo, OH 43604 or the Toledo Botanical Gardens, 5403 Elmer Drive, Toledo, OH 43615.
