“ Sherri: 44 years have passed. You were Sherri Morris back then. We were just kids, you 13, me 14. That house of yours on Bowen Road, bowling at Westland Lanes, that silly 50's theme dance at Deveaux school. You were the first girlfriend I ever had. Like any relationship at that age, ours passed all too quickly. Such is the nature of youth I suppose. But you had a profound impact on me that has lasted throughout my lifetime. I never forgot you and have always been grateful for having known you. We haven't spoken in all this time. Different lives, different worlds. I recently had one of those "whatever happened to ..." moments and eventually came across your obituary. The world is a sadder place without you in it. Thanks for touching my life, however briefly. I know you brought joy to all those who knew you. Forever grateful,

“ I am surprised and saddened to learn of Sherri's passing. I worked with her at Mom and Me and remember her fondly. I miss seeing the pictures of her children and grandchildren and hearing about their visits which she seemed to cherish so much. She always spoke kindly of her husband also and I am sure we will great missed by all. From her Mom and Me family to yours.
