November 12, 1921 - May 9, 2011

Spiro J. "Papou" Zervas, 89, passed away Monday, May 9, 2011 at Ebeid Hospice Residence surrounded by his loving family. He was born November 12, 1921 in Sault Ste Marie, Michigan. He was preceded in death by his wife, Virginia (Stamos). He is survived by his son Nick (Amy) and grandchildren Alexis and Evan. They were truly the light of his life and he will be greatly missed. He had many friends and family that will also miss seeing his smiling face and friendly waves. Spiro served proudly in the Coast Guard during World War II. After his honorable discharge, he became a tailor. His career started at B.R. Baker then continued to Hughes and Hatcher, Macy's and finally Jacobson's where he retired when they closed in 2002. He was a member of Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Cathedral, AHEPA, Masonic Lodge and the Zenobia Shrine. Services will be 11 AM Friday in the Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Cathedral. The family will receive friends from 2-8 PM Thursday in the Ansberg-West Funeral Home, 3000 Sylvania Avenue where recitation of the Trisagion prayers will begin at 7 PM. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to the church, Sylvania Franciscan Academy or St. Ursula Academy. Papou always told his grandkids that their education was one of the most important things in life. The family would like to thank the staff and doctors at the Toledo Hospital and the Ebeid residence for their exceptional care. With their help Spiro was eased of pain and made his final days peaceful.
