“ I first met Sue at the former Medical College of Ohio many years ago. She worked in student accounts. I remember her being so friendly and helpful with always a smile and encouragement. About 10 years ago she became a member of Friendship Baptist Church. We were in ministries together, serving the deaf community learning ASL (a few times opening up her home for us to practice). She served as a board members at Naomi Inc; served as part of groups of saints learning to hear the voice of the holy spirit; as well as her work as a cast member in the FBC drama ministry. Sue was one to work in the background. Until one day I encouraged her to be a cast member of several plays because I saw her potential. She told me she couldn't do it until one day she found herself on the stage in the role of a "secretary"and an "angel" and she did an outstanding job. Sue also wrote beautiful poetry as part of a challenge for board members to write and perform it with the women in recovery at Naomi. Sue's words were beautiful and uplifting. I enjoyed and appreciate Sue's willingness to serve with a spirit of excellence in whatever gave God the glory. Her quiet spirit will be missed.

“ I remember when Sue and I tried to take a selfie at church. We cut heads off. We cut sides of faces off. It was hilarious! You will be missed!

God picked a beautiful flower! Such a sweet, sincere and loving person. Her spirit will live on through her family. My prayers are with the family especially her grandchildren that we came to know and love. Until we all meet again. ☐

Blessed are those that mourn for they will be comforted. Matt. 5:4 (ESV)

“ I met Sue in Friendship Baptist in 2018 where the LORD sent me to serve as a Missionary from Nigeria, West Africa. We bonded and it was as I had known her all my life. We prayed together, laughed together, traveled together, danced and cried together. By the time my family joined me, she became a close aunt to my sons and a brother to my husband. We shopped together and our favorite store was Dillard's. We had so many divine encounters at Dillard's because we always sing our favorite song JESUS JESUS JESUS while shopping that they got to know us. Our relationship blossomed as Sisters in CHRIST that Sue introduced me to her family. She became part of my family here in America and in Nigeria Africa as she spoke with them on the phone. I used to tell her that she will visit my Country Nigeria when GOD allows it for her to meet her African family. She was such a blessing to my family and I. When it was time for my two teenage sons to learn how to drive, she took it upon herself and taught them. She was such an amazing person and a dedicated prayer warrior. She loved her family so much that she had their names and will call out their names in prayer whenever we're praying for our families in Parents of Power. She loved her Sister's and will call me for advice and ask how she can pray for them and her nephews and nieces. Sue was an incredible and amazing woman, very kind, caring, loving and thoughtful. She was a gem. I will miss her but I thank GOD for the encounter He gave me to have a glimpse into the realms of glory to see Sue.

ADIEU! ADIEU! ADIEU my darling sweet Sister until we meet in eternity

“ I met Sue when she and her husband Joe moved in the house next door when I was 10 or 11 yrs old. She was pregnant with her son Bill. When he was born, he was a colicky baby, my Mom was always able to soothe him, as a new Mom Sue would call my Mom over and that's how our families became good friends and actually family. We spent many holiday with them as well as vacations. Bill and Nicki called my parents Grandma Sue and Big V. Sue was a wonderful and kind generous person, always helping others. She was always strong in her faith in the Lord and our family went to church with them often.

She loved her family and friends deeply. I haven't been present and close to her in the past few years , but say she made an impact on my life growing up would be a an understatement. Spread your angel wings! Know you will be missed on earth.

To Bill and Nick and your kids my heart breaks for you, it's not easy to be without your parents even as adults. Hold onto your memories, honor her traditions with your kids. Love you

“ Sue and I had some wonderful years together as neighbors and classmates. This last year was the best with our church family. Although I can not attend her service I will be celebrating with the angels as she walks with Jesus. We will miss her terribly but I look forward to seeing her again. May our loving God comfort you during this sorrowful time. Jackie Widmer Tronge

“ I was lucky to grow up with Sue in my life. She was always so nice and so fun! She always made me feel comfortable and welcomed. I'm sure she is still around in spirit, hanging around her loved ones. The world is better because she was in it. Love you, Sue!
