

Thaddeus Lee Wegrzynowski

July 31, 1946 - January 27, 2012

Thaddeus Lee Wegrzynowski, 65, passed away on January 27, 2012 at the University Hospital in Ann Arbor, MI. He was born July 31, 1946 in Morristown, NJ. He was a Navy Veteran. He spent time as a racecar driver at Toledo Speedway. In 1980, he opened Lee Motor Sales, Inc., on the corner of Central and McCord, where he thrived in business for over two decades. He retired, and resided in Reading, MI at a cottage on Ribeck Lake. His passions in life was Elvis, cottage living, music, animals and he was a food connoisseur. He was survived by his life long companion and best friend, Connie; son, Ted Jr., (Candace), daughter, Misty, their mother, Marcia; daughters, Amber, Brandi (Benny). His grandchildren, Brandi, Dillon, Tristyn, and great grandchild, Johna. In lieu of flowers, send any donations to the Veterans Hospital in Ann Arbor, MI in his honor. Online condolences may be made at www.ansberg-wes t.com

Tribute Wall

DM

“ I miss him, always have since i was a little girl. This is a tear jerker Candace, but thanks for adding it. Love all of you so much.

Daughter Misty - mistylschramm@yahoo.com mistylschramm@yahoo.com -
February 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM

TB

“ Your family is in our thoughts and prayers, we are very sorry for your loss. God Bless.

The Robie Family - brobie@promedicafcu.com brobie@promedicafcu.com -
February 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM

PP

“ Connie and Family, I am so sorry hearing of Ted's passing, I met Ted Through Jim Hall, Have a lot of memories talking with him about anything and everything, He was always laughing and a funny guy, Condolences to you and your family

Pam Rupp - plrtkh@aol.com plrtkh@aol.com - February 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM

EW

“ Thoughts and Prayers are with your family and friends right now. So sorry for your loss.

Erin Wolfram - February 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM