“ Dora was always a great person to talk to and gave off great positivity. One of my favorite memories is when she came from Ohio to visit and spent the night at our apartment in the Bronx. We laughed lots and she put curlers in my hair. I was about 8 years old. Over the years we talked every so often. I will miss your smile and laugh dear cousin. My deepest sympathies to her husband and son. You are up in heaven reunited with your John and your mom. May your memory be eternal my beautiful cousin. ❤️😭 xo Theodora (Kreatsoulas) Tufts

My deepest sympathy on the passing of Dora. Her brother John and I spent many days at Holy Trinity participating in their basketball program. May both of their memories be eternal.
