“ My first voice teacher was a tenor named Thomas East. Thomas was the lead tenor at the Darmstadt Opera House in Germany for six seasons years ago.

One evening, during a performance of Tosca or La Traviata, he sang an aria in German as the production was being sung in German... the applause was so long, that the audience demanded an encore of that aria. So Thomas repeated the aria.

The next day in the Darmstadt newspaper, the headline read as follows: “Herr East gives us a rare treat, he sang the aria the first time in German, and his encore in Italian.”

He inadvertently sang the encore in its original language, and didn't realize it until the next day!!

“ Professor East was my voice instruction during the 1980s. He was a very nice person. I just found out he passed away several years ago. I will miss him.

“ Dearest Judy and Family, I am forever grateful that I was able to have the experience of Tom's expertise as a voice coach and as a caring friend. He brought out a voice in me I never knew I possessed and I hope to continue to share it in his honor. What a blessing from God I will never forget! I know The Lord is with you through this difficult time. With much sympathy, Sarah
