“ I have many fond memories of Velma. From our time in the choir at Reformation to her attendance at my Wedding to Ed DeLucia. She was one of the sweetest people I have ever had the preveledge to know. She always went out of her way to make everyone she met feel at home. I will miss her very much. She has cetainly become one of God.s angels and will watch over all of you . My deepest sympathy and Love!! Marsha
