“I was a student of Mrs Ryan in the 4th grade back in 1960-61. She was a delightful person and had a terrific way of handling young kids and motivating them to please her. I can recall the warm reception she gave me when I paid her a visit back in 1992, over 30 years after she was my teacher. She was as engaging and warm as ever and immediately recognized me after so many decades of no contact. RIP Virginia. You will be remembered fondly by all whose paths you crossed. It was a pleasure to know and be taught by someone as loving and patient as you. Ken Arenson

“Pam, your mother was such a fine person, as I knew her at St. Michael's. I believe how she taught in school is how she dealt with people at church....great and informative in meetings, kindly and extremely thoughtful, and indeed such a joy to be with at any time. Love to her and prayers for her family and may she always be remembered.

“ Some of my memories of your mother in my 4th grade classroom are as clear as if we were all there yesterday. She was at the center of a very cheerful and productive classroom.
