

Wallace D. Rowley

February 6, 1945 - July 19, 2011

Wallace D. Rowley, 66, passed away Tuesday, July 19, 2011 in The Toledo Hospital. He was employed for 30 years by Deco Tools Inc. retiring in 2009 as a machine shop foreman. Surviving is his wife, Karen; daughter, Tana (Greg) Wagoner; son, Michael; sister, Phyllis (Rev. Gerald) Bell; grandchildren, Travis and Alexis Wagoner and Keirsten Rowley; aunt, Ruth Ewing and 5 nieces. Services will be 11 AM Friday in the Ansberg-West Funeral Home, 3000 Sylvania Avenue where the family will receive friends from 3-8 PM Thursday. Interment Ottawa Hills Memorial Park.

Tribute Wall

P(

“ Uncle Wally was always pretty quiet but his smile spoke volumes - like a gentle giant....hee hee. I'm going to miss him very much. Hugs, love, sympathy, and prayers for you Aunt Karen & cousins/family.

Patti (niece) - February 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM

ET

“ I know I haven't seen all of you in such a long time...but know that you have been on my mind and in my heart. I am very sorry to hear about Uncle Wally. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

Erica (Rowley) Flynn - teflynn@williams-net.com teflynn@williams-net.com - February 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM

PP

“ Wally was my best friend at Waite H.S. and I have only fond memories of him. I only wish I had tried to contact him later in life. Please except my condolences and apologies for not getting in touch with him during the years.

Paul Sharlow - psharlow@toast.net psharlow@toast.net - February 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM