

Warren Frank Eighmey

March 8, 1924 - May 10, 2011

Warren Eighmey, 87, passed away at Ridgewood Manor nursing home May 10, 2011. He grew up in Erie, Michigan. He built many houses in the Toledo area from 1946 on. Warren never advertised; his truck said "my homeowners are my salesmen." Although he was semi-retired from the building business in his early sixties, he was a full time farmer, harvesting strawberries, raspberries, corn and vegetables for his family, friends and various stores. He was a quiet man, kind and patient, who loved his family. Surviving are his wife, Karen; daughters, Gloria Eighmey, Sharon (John) Donatelli; grandchildren, John Donatelli and Ragina (Chad) Johnson. Also surviving are his brothers and sisters, Phil (Kathy) Eighmey, Phyllis (Roger) Adams, Barbara Kinney, Lucille Matzinger and Delores Harman. The family would like to give a special thanks to the nurses and staff at Ridgewood Manor for their kindness and care and to the Alzheimer's Association for their great support, informative literature and day care. A service celebrating Warren's life will be held 11:00am Saturday May 14 at Epworth United Methodist Church, 3077 Valleyview Drive (at Central Avenue) Toledo, Ohio. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to The Alzheimer's Association of Northwest Ohio, 2500 N. Reynolds Rd. Toledo, OH 43615. Arrangements entrusted to Ansberg-West Funeral Directors.
