“ Cindy, My heart just breaks for you and the family. You are such a wonderful woman and Bill loved you so much. It is such a loss. May you find peace with God's love, family, friends and wonderful memories. I remember fondly your time in Fostoria and how you both changed our lives. I also remember the dinner we attended at your home in Findlay and the wonderful food you and Bill made. It was the first time I actually had hot cross buns. Take care and feel the huge hug I am sending you.

“ While we did not have the opportunity to know Mr. Reimer, we have the blessing of knowing his son Butch. Butch has always spoken of the lessons taught and the character instilled by his father. We are glad that he provided us such a good friend. May comfort surround your family during this difficult time.
