“ dear john and dave - this is debbie zeluff, the oldest of the zeluff girls who lived next door on wyndale. i just learned of your father's passing.

and here are my memories of your dad - larger than life with a cigar in his mouth walking down the driveway with a big smile ... and giving my mom a hard time (which was great!)

i remember swimming in your pool with my sisters and always being welcomed by jean and bill. your dad would ask us to show him our dives and officiate over who could swim the length of the pool the fastest - and your mom used to iron my hair (on an ironing board) so it would be straight!.

sweet memories for me! BEST, debbie
